

Waterloo station is the third busiest station in the country, with high levels of footfall. By developing an impressive first floor level of high end retail and restaurants a further 17 opportunities will be available at this new development in the heart of the city.

79% ABC
High disposable income

